During the demonstration these dishes were tasted by the ladies present and proved to be very appetizing.

Constable G. L. Morris went through the motions of selling a runabout of uncertain model in Depot square yesterday afternoon. An initial offer of $100 was used as a self-starter and for a time the bidding was considerably brisk. Then there was a sudden slump, for it developed that most of the apparently anxious buyers were small boys who were bidding in dollars and cents. The car was taken on an attachment in favor of A. A. Lamorey and through the devious processes through which auction articles frequently pass, the car was knocked down to Mr. Lamorey for $135 when the sale closed.

That sport writers who are interested in schoolboy athletics are alive to the importance of Goddard seminary among the preparatory schools of New England is evidenced by the frequent appearance of such items as the following from Bob Dunbar's column in the Boston Journal: "Heavy snow in Vermont compelled Goddard seminary to cancel its games with Colby academy and Haverhill high. Ralph Smith of Barre has been elected captain for next year's football eleven. Basketball comes next and Goddard will have a strong team. Looking forward to baseball, the school that sent Witt to the Philadelphia Athletics expects great things of 'Midge' Shay from Dorchester high, brother of Marty Shay, Lynch from Dean academy and Jacobs, a Canadian from Montreal."

Thomas Eno, an elderly man living on Merchant street, is able to be out of doors, after having been confined to the house for several days as the result of a peculiar accident which he sustained recently while caring for a friend who was ill. In stepping from the sick room, Mr. Eno thought, into an adjoining room. Mr. Eno confused two doors and chose the one leading to a hallway. Before he could recover his balance he had fallen downstairs. The fall proved a severe shock to his system and he suffered considerably from a neck strain. He has not recovered fully from the mishap, but a physician has assured him that intense pains in his neck will gradually disappear.

You should be buying your Christmas gifts now. Thanksgiving one week late will crowd Christmas business into a very few days. Unless you select early, we are afraid that you will get poorer service than we would like to give you.

Off for Christmas

All over this country of ours, this will be the largest Christmas for years. Everything that's worth while will be bought up.

No foreign Dolls or Toys this year. All American made and not half enough of these to go around.

Children's Dolls

These are the Campbell Kids—the best Domestic Doll made in this country. Their faces are better; the whole make-up is different. They are natural little babies and children.

These Campbell Kid Dolls sell for from 50c up to $4.50 for the very largest.

Campbell Kids come with short or long dresses.

A child will drop an imported $10.00 Doll for a $2.98 Campbell Kid every time. It is more natural and lifelike. Even grown-up people admire them—they look so much like real babies.

We sold over 600 Dolls last Christmas—nearly all Campbell Kids. Could have sold 200 more, but could not get them. 200 customers either bought what they did not want or went without.

About 200 very pretty Pictures, all by noted Italian artists. These sell at 75c, 95c and $1.35 each. You may expect that these are well worth from one-quarter to one-half more. We make a special on them just at Christmas. These in our Basement.
